

AEROSPACE

BY THE NUMBERS

More than 200 companies have ties to the state's aerospace sector. More than 26,000 people are employed in Wisconsin by companies that support the aerospace manufacturing sector.

200+
COMPANIES

Source: Companies identified through proprietary and public database sources and OEM qualified supplier lists

26,000+
EMPLOYED

by companies that support the aerospace manufacturing sector

Source: Infogroup 2019

WISCONSIN ranks at the top for employment concentration in four key fields for aerospace manufacturing:

- #1
- fabricated metal product manufacturing
 - electrical equipment, appliance and component manufacturing
- #2
- machinery manufacturing
 - plastics and rubber products manufacturing

Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics, Quarterly Census of Employment and Wages, Annual 2017 Employment

AIRCRAFT, SPACECRAFT AND PARTS are the #7 largest category of WISCONSIN EXPORTS. Wisconsin's exports nearly doubled in this category in the past three years totaling

 $730 MILLION in 2018

Source: U.S. Census Bureau data as reported by WISERTrade

EAA AirVenture, an annual event held in Oshkosh, Wisconsin, draws more than 600,000 aviation enthusiasts from more than 85 COUNTRIES.

600,000 AVIATION ENTHUSIASTS

Source: Experimental Aircraft Association website, 2019

“Astronautics is excited about the possibility of creating and hosting a center of excellence that will leverage Wisconsin’s position as a leader in innovative technology, especially within the global aviation and aerospace industry. The unique competitive advantage of this center will be the blending of aerospace and cybersecurity solutions that will benefit both industry and higher education.”

~ Chad Cundiff
President
Astronautics